

10 GREAT REASONS FOR STUDYING AT THE CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES OF THE JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY

1. The JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY is the most historic and prestigious university in Poland. Founded in 1364, its history has mirrored the country's turbulence past. Today, around 50,000 students study across 15 faculties.
2. The CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES is a modern unit of the university catering for international students, enjoying excellent student services and study facilities.
3. We emphasise INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION and partnerships, and offer a range of opportunities for students including guest lectures and participation in academic exchange.
4. We offer VARIED AND STIMULATING COURSES taught by professors who are experts in their fields, covering the spectrum of European Studies, including Central and East European literature, European Union studies, Western and Eastern European history and Jewish studies.
5. We run Polish LANGUAGE CLASSES at various levels, from absolute beginners to upper-intermediate, as well as French, German and Russian courses.
6. POLAND is a beautiful, hospitable and fascinating country that students soon fall in love with if they haven't already.
7. KRAKOW is the most beautiful and historic city in Poland, its cobbled streets and grand squares a popular destination for tourist and culture lovers but also an affordable and exciting hive of activity for students.
8. We occupy a great place in rapidly changing CENTRAL EUROPE, ideal both for studying Europe from both sides, and for travelling to see other places for yourself.
9. We run several STUDY TRIPS per year to places of interest around Poland and the region – e.g. the Balkans, the Baltic States, Ukraine and Russia – giving students first-hand experience in the field of their studies. One trip per semester is covered in the tuition fees for Study Abroad students.
10. Our DEDICATED STAFF ensure that students get the care and attention they need to make studying and living in an unfamiliar environment easier. We organise orientation and integration events, help to arrange university or private accommodation, and are always available with support and advice.

NEW MA SPECIALISATION: Europeanisation and Governance in Central and Eastern Europe

Centre for European Studies of the Jagiellonian University

This exciting new specialisation aims to build on the foundations of our interdisciplinary MA programmes to provide a more in-depth knowledge of the processes of Europeanisation and democratisation in CEE to students aspiring to become experts in the field.

The focus of the specialisation will be on four new courses tailor-made to reflect the subject. International partners including those from ARENA Centre for European Studies at the University of Oslo have contributed to the formation of the syllabuses for these courses and will participate in the teaching.

- Foreign and International Relations in Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) facing CFSP/ESDP
- Europeanisation and transformation of collective identity
- Theorising European integration. CEE countries in the transforming Union
