

JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY IN KRAKOW CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES

The Centre for European Studies is a branch of the Institute of European Studies at the Jagiellonian University. CES offers an MA in European Studies, a study abroad programme for undergraduates, several MA degree programmes coordinated in consortium with partner universities, and a Summer School.

WHY STUDY AT THE CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES?

EXCELLENT ACADEMICS

At CES, we place high value on providing our students with access to the most dedicated professors, an extensive selection of courses and the best quality of education. Our committed teachers are experts in their respective fields, recognised all over the world for their academic work and their involvement in international research projects. Our course selection is interdisciplinary and allows students to tailor their studies to their needs and interests.

QUALITY STUDENT SERVICES

Our dedicated, enthusiastic and resourceful staff members provide excellent care for our international students. Additionally, the CES staff helps to prepare students for their future with career development services that aid students in accomplishing their objectives.

UNIQUE CULTURAL AND LEARNING EXPERIENCES

It is our priority to organise study trips so that students can experience the rich cultural life of Poland and Central and Eastern Europe and widen their knowledge of the political, economic and social realities of CEE countries.

Open lectures and workshops that feature internationally acclaimed scholars, writers and experts are also considered an important component of student life at CES. Students can learn about unique perspectives and cutting-edge theories from people working in the field.

TRY US OUT: CES SUMMER SCHOOL

Looking to get a taste of what CES has to offer? Our 2012 Summer School programme entitled, "Central Europe: Unity in Diversity?" is a great way to do just that. Apply today!

For full information and details about the Centre for European Studies and all its programmes, please visit: www.ces.uj.edu.pl.

